Shipping Policy on Herbs

If the patient gets the U.S. Postal Service insurance then, the value of package (if lost) will be covered by the postal service.

Which means someone will have to be at the shipping address to receive and sign for the package. If there is no one at the address to receive then the postal service will leave a note with information about the attempted delivery. Then the patient will need to bring the note with I.D. to the USPS location to pick up the package.

If the patient decides not to get the insurance then neither the post office or the Doctor's office will be responsible for the loss of the package.

Insurance typically costs $4.00 to $8.00 based on the value of the contents.

The shipping will be charged separately from the herbs, so you will have two separate charges related to the shipping of herbs.
